President's Message

Dear Members:

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and every member of our community a happy and joyous Jewish holiday season which begins with the Jewish New Year on September 12, 1988.

Congratulations to four new board members who replaced Maurice Darwish, Joe Ovadia, Fred Lichaa and Jacob Masliah. I would like to thank Maurice, Joe, Fred and Jacob for their significant contribution and dedication to the KJA. I would like also to take this opportunity to thank Mary Mourad for her devotion and assistance. Mary had resigned earlier and was replaced by Fortune Lichaa. The new board members are Josette Selim, Joe Kheder, Tewfik Mourad and Ibrahim Massuda. I am very happy to have these dedicated men and woman on the board and I'm confident that they will give a valuable contribution to the community.

We are actively looking for a property and considering various options for establishing a Karaite center. Among the options we are exploring is sharing some of the facilities of Peninsula Sinai Congregation where we conduct our monthly prayer. We will advise you of any significant news regarding a place for the KJA.

The board is also working very closely with the Karaite community in Israel for the translation and publication in English language of some Karaite books that are of interest to our community.

Joe Abel
President

Selected topics from the KJA Board meetings:

- The board extends their best wishes to you and your family on YOM TEROUAH. Please review the enclosed calendar for the dates and places of the services during the high holidays.

- Many hours were spent in discussing the real estate options available. Separate meetings of the real estate committee were fruitful to arrive at important decision.

- The board announced the appointment of Mr. Mourad El Kodsí as public relation and liaison.

- Joe Abel announced that KJA received a check in the amount of $3,000.00 to establish an fund for the needy. This amount was donated by Benoie Massuda of New York, anyone who wishes to contribute to this fund is welcome to do so.

- KJA is happy to announce that the Karaite community received a hand written Sepher Torah from Rabbi Abraham Gabr of Ramleh. The Sepher was brought from Israel by Mr. & Mrs. Jacob Moussa.

- Elie Moussa has informed the board that our current balance is $228,378.00. This amount does not include the needy fund nor the Dr. Barakat Massuda fund

- The result of the KJA election are on the inside cover of the front sheet. Please take a moment to notice that we have a new treasurer, Joe Kheder, and a new secretary Josette Selim.

Judaism and Polygamy

According to the Torah a Jew may have two wives, as long as he treats them fairly: "If he takes him another wife, her food, her raiment, and the duty of marriage shall not diminish." (exodus 21:10); "If a man have two wives." ; (Deuteronomy 21:15).

When the Jewish people was young, the Torah tells us that a number of patriarches and kings had more than one wife at a time.

Judaism then spread to the east and to the West-Europe. Until the fifth century A.D. Europe was divided between Christianity and Paganism. Jews found no difficulty in practicing that right of having two wives.

Little by little Christianity prevailed almost in all the countries of Europe and Jews had to use restrictions in practicing that right.

About the year 1000 a Rabbanite scholar whose prestige rivalled that of the Gionim of the East became the leading religious authority among the Jews of Europe. Encouraged by this prestige and effected by the customs and social status prevailed in the country he was living, France Gershom of Mayene put an end to polygamy. It should be mentioned her that long time before Gershom polygamy was looked at as undesirable practice.

Jews in the east, Asia and Africa were under Islamic rule. Islam from the very beginning looked favorably upon polygamy, "Mary women of your choice, two, or three, or four; But it ye fear that ye shall not be able to deal justly (with them). Then one only, "Surat al-Nisa 4:3".

Jews in general Rabbanite or Karaite found no difficulty religiously or socially to practice the right of marrying two wives.

it was not until the first quarter of the 20th century when that practice ended among members of the Rabbanite community in Egypt. In 1914 the Rabbanite community of Egypt compiled the "Personal Status Code" and they seized the opportunity to state in this code that polygamy is forbidden.

Among Karaites however the Story was different. Many members rich and not rich did not want to let that right go. Some members of the Aslan, Massuda, Firuz and Levi families had two wives until early 1930's.

When Hakham Abraham Cohen came from Turkey in 1921 to head the Karaite community in Egypt, he and Mourad Farag joined forces to put an end to polygamy. Restrictions were put to discourage members of the community the strongest among which was that every case should be examined separately and the decision taken was final. In the minutes of the Karaite religious council one can find many and very interesting requests by members of the community to marry a second wife. In one case the applicant came to the meeting of the religious council with a well-known Rabbanite attorney well informed in the Mosaic laws to defend his case. When in this particular case the Karaite religious council declined to decide on the matter, members of the general assembly were called. It was a very stormy meeting and when finally the votes were taken the result was in favour of the applicant. This was in 1925 and it marked the last time a permission to marry a second wife was given. Practically the practice was ended but it was never so stated in the "Personal Status Code" compiled and agreed upon in 1935.

THE STORY OF JONAH

IN YOM KIPPOUR (THE DAY OF ATONEMENT) WE ALWAYS READ THE BOOK OF JONAH IN THE BIBLE. THE BOOK OF JONAH UNLIKE OTHER PROPHETIC BOOKS IS NARRATIVE, AND DESCRIBES THE ADVENTURES OF A PROPHET WHO TRIED TO DISOBEY G-D'S COMMAND. G-D TOLD HIM TO GO TO NINEVEH, (THE CAPITAL OF THE GREAT EMPIRE OF ASSYRIA, ISRAEL'S DEADLY ENEMY), AND DELIVER A FATAL WARNING. BUT JONAH DID NOT WANT TO GO THERE WITH G-D'S MESSAGE, BECAUSE HE WAS CONVINCED THAT G-D WOULD NOT CARRY OUT HIS THREAT TO DESTROY THE SINNING CITY. AFTER A SERIES OF DRAMATIC EVENTS, HE FORCIBLY OBEYED, AS A RESULT HE WALKED THROUGH THE STREETS OF NINEVEH AND PROCLAIMED THAT THE CITY WOULD BE DESTROYED IN FORTY DAYS. THE PEOPLE OF NINEVEH BELIEVED G-D'S MESSAGE, AND THE KING ORDERED THAT EVERYONE FROM THE POOREST TO THE RICHEST MUST FAST; NO ONE SHALL EAT OR DRINK, AND THAT ALL MUST PRAY FOR G-D'S FORGIVENESS.

AT THE END JONAH SULKED WHEN HIS MESSAGE OF DOOM DID NOT COME TRUE.

THE BOOK PORTRAYS G-D'S ABSOLUTE SOVEREIGNTY OVER HIS CREATION. BUT ABOVE ALL IT PORTRAYS G-D AS A G-D OF LOVE AND MERCY, WHO FORGIVES AND DELIVERS EVEN THE ENEMIES OF HIS PEOPLE.

TRADITIONAL LASAGNA

Last June, I had the pleasure of tasting this lasagna at Maurice and Liliane Pessah house. Take it from a gourmet, this recipe is an award winning recipe. Maurice was kind enough to share it with us.

Fred Lichaa

18 to 20 pieces of uncooked lasagna noodles.
1 pound of ground beef.
32 ounces of spaghetti sauce.
8 ounces (2 cups) shredded mozzarella cheese.
1 ounce (1/4 cup) grated parmesan cheese.
2 pounds (4 cups) of ricotta cheese.
4 ounces (1 cup) of shredded monterey jack cheese.
2 tablespoons of chopped fresh parseley.
1/4 of teaspoon of pepper.
1 teaspoon salt.

Brown the ground beef and remove excess fat.
Add the sauce and simmer for a period of 10 - 15 min.
Cook the lasagna according to its package instructions.
Drain the lasagna and lay each one on aluminum paper.
Mix the shredded mozzarella & monterey jack cheeses.
Combine the ricotta cheese, parmesan cheese, parseley, salt and pepper together for filling.
Lay 4 pieces of the noodles length wise on bottom of a 13 x 9 baking pan.
Spread 1/3 of the ricotta cheese filling mix.
Spread 1/4 of the meat sauce on top of the cheese.
Sprinkle 1/4 of the mozzarella and monterey jack cheeses.
Repeat layer of lasagna, meat, & cheese 2 more times.
Place the remaining sauce and cheeses on the top layer.
Cover with aluminum foil and bake at 350 for 30-40 min.
Remove aluminum cover foil and bake for an additional 10-12 min. until it gets lightly brown.
Remove from the oven & let it stand for 10-12 min. before cutting.

Serve and Enjoy

THE DAY OF ATONMENT

IF YOU WERE TRACKING THE ATTENDANCE OF THE WORSHIPPERS IN OUR TEMPLES IN EGYPT, YOM KIPPOUR'S ATTENDANCE OUTFACED ALL THE OTHERS. INDEED THERE IS A SPECIAL MEANING TO ATTEND THE SERVICES. THE PRAYERS ARE READ FROM A SEPARATE BOOK, VOLUME 3. THEY LAST ALL DAY AND THE MELODIES ARE PENITENTIAL AND VERY MOVING. YOM KIPPOUR FALLS ON THE 10TH DAY OF THE 7TH MONTH AND IS AN OBLIGATORY DAY OF FASTING. IT IS THE DUTY OF EVERY ISRAELITE TO OBSERVE THE DAY BY FASTING AND NOT TO ENGAGE IN ANY FORM OF WORK OR ANY MANNER OF ENTERTAINMENT. WE SHOULD MEDITATE AND EXAMINE OUR SOUL WITH ALL SINCERITY. WE SHOULD PRAY FOR FORGIVENESS AND MERCY FROM THE ALMIGHTY.

HOW AWSOME IS SUCH A DAY! THE LORD GAVE US THE OPPORTUNITY TO CLEANSE OUR SOULS BY FORGIVING THE SINS. ON THAT DAY EVERYONE ASKS:

'DID WE OBEY THE FIRST FOUR OF THE TEN COMMANDEMENTS WHICH GOVERN THE VERTICAL RELATION BETWEEN US AND GOD?'

'DID WE HONOUR THE FIFTH COMMANDEMENT AND RESPECT OUR FATHER AND MOTHER?'

'DID WE FOLLOW THE REST OF THE COMMANDEMENTS WHICH REGULATE THE HORIZONTAL RELATION BETWEEN MEN AND FELLOW MEN?'

DURING BIBLICAL TIMES BENEI ISRAEL ATONED BY FASTING AND THROUGH INDIVIDUAL PRAYERS TILL THE TIME DEDICATED FOR THE OFFERING (MINHA), THEN THE HIGH PRIEST ENTERS BEIT HAMIKDASH SURROUNDED BY THE REST OF THE PRIESTS. HE ASKS G-D FOR MERCY AND FORGIVENESS FOR HIMSELF AND FOR ALL THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL WHILE HE PRESENTS THE OFFERINGS. THIS IS SIMILAR TO WHAT MOSES DID EACH TIME THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL DISOBEYED THE LAWS.

TODAY WE DO NOT HAVE BEIT HAMIDKASH NOR A HIGH PRIEST. OUR PRAYERS ARE IN LIEU OF THE OFFERINGS AND WHEN THE TIME COMES FOR THE MINHA, THE ARK IS OPENED IN THE TEMPLE AND EVERYONE IS CALLED TO CARRY A SEPHER AND GOES SEVEN TIMES AROUND THE TEMPLE CHANTING HYMNS OF ATONMENT.

IN ISHAYA (55:7) IT IS WRITTEN THAT THE EVIL ONE WILL ABANDON HIS EVIL WAYS AND THE BAD DOER , HIS BAD INTENTIONS AND RETURN TO G-D AND THE LORD WILL HAVE MERCY ON HIM BECAUSE G-D IS ABUNDANT IN CLEMENCY.

THE BEGINNING OF KAPPARA IS CONFESSION OF ONE'S SINS. THERE ARE PEOPLE WHO CAN JUSTIFY ANYTHING THEY WANT TO DO. EVERYTHING THEY DO IS RIGHTEDOUS. THE BIBLE WARNS US FROM SUCH A BEHAVIOUR AND MENTION THAT THERE IS NO LIVE BEING WHO DID NOT ERR. SOME PEOPLE KNOW THEY SINNED, SOME DO NOT. WE REPENT FOR THE SINS THAT WE KNOW WE COMMITTED AND THE ONES WE ARE UNAWARE OF.

THAT WAS THE FIRST STEP CONFESSION. THE NEXT STEP IS THE COMMITMENT TO CHANGE THE BEHAVIOR. IN OUR PRAYERS WE HAVE A STATEMENT "WHOEVER COVERS HIS SINS WILL NOT SUCCEED AND HE WHO CONFESSES AND ABANDON THEM WILL HAVE MERCY UPON".

NOW YOU GOT THE POINT AND CAN TAKE CONTROL TO BENEFIT FROM THAT DAY.

HE WHO SAID THAT HE DID NOT SUFFER ON YOM KIPPOUR SHOULD NOT BE PROUD. SOMETHING WENT WRONG. MAYBE HE ATE AND DRANK OVER HIS NORMAL CAPACITY TILL A SECOND BEFORE SUNSET OF THE FASTING, HE THEN READ A BOOK, DAY DREAMED, STAYED HOME ASLEEP MOST OF TIME, MAYBE HE WENT TO WORK CLAIMING THAT HE IS COMPULSED, MAYBE HE HAD FUN ETC.

ON THE OTHER HAND HE WHO SUFFERED AND FELL ON HIS KNEES IN THE TEMPLE AND PRAYED TO CLEANSE HIS SOUL, HAVE REASONS TO BE HAPPY. HE OBSERVED YOM KIPPOUR. HE SENSED PURITY AND PEACE, HE KNEW THE FEELING OF THE HUNGRY AND THE DEPRIVED. HENCE HIS HANDS WILL NOT BE SHORT OF GIVING TO THE POOR AND THE NEEDY.
